MESSAGE

I am happy to learn about the initiative taken by the Central Vigilance Commission (CVC) to hold the Vigilance Awareness Week from October 30 to November 5, 2023. It is befitting that this is observed in the week of Sardar Vallabhbhai Patel's Jayanti - his life's message is about service and integrity.

The theme of the Week – 'Say no to corruption, commit to the nation' reflects one of the foremost priorities of eliminating corruption.

CVC's efforts in combating corruption and its contribution to the nation's socio-economic development are commendable. The Commission's manifold initiatives, including a three-month campaign on measures for preventive vigilance measures bolster its anti-corruption efforts.

For the development of any country or any state, it is necessary to eliminate corruption and ensure transparency in governance. Our commitment to maintaining zero-tolerance towards corruption is unwavering. Over the last 9 years, a number of steps have been taken to curb corruption, as well as to institutionalise honesty.

The people, especially youngsters, have a crucial role in strengthening the fight against corruption. Raising awareness is a particularly important way of catalysing a mass movement in this direction.

All our efforts are aimed at building a New India, which stands for pro-people progress and corruption-free governance. I firmly believe that when the country celebrates 100 years of freedom in 2047, India will be a developed nation. Anti-corruption initiatives play an important role in making this happen.

Best wishes for making Vigilance Awareness Week celebrations a huge success. May these efforts go a long way in enhancing transparency and probity in public life.
